Profile

Megan Baganz, PT, has been working out of the Hinsdale Orthopaedic/IBJI office since 2005. She received her undergraduate degree in biology from University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1998 and her master's degree in physical therapy from Carroll University in 2000. Megan has a passion for learning and has pursued two manual therapy certifications. She became a Certified Mulligan Practitioner in 2013 and obtained her Certificate in Orthopedic Physical Therapy in 2019.

Megan was a four year letter winner in both Cross Country and Track and Field at University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, where she earned All-Conference and Academic All-American honors. Megan continues to compete post-collegiately with the Wisconsin Runner Racing Team. She has a special interest in treating runners, and also enjoys helping people of all ages and ability levels achieve their highest functional level possible.
